Nineteenth Sunday after Pentecost

16th October 2022

*As we gather in prayer today, we acknowledge the Taungurung people who are the traditional custodians of this land. We pay respects to the past and present Elders of the Kulin nation and extend that respect to any Aboriginals present. Welcome to all, especially, to newcomers and visitors. The service for Holy Eucharist starts on page 119 and that of Morning Prayer on page 19 of A Prayer Book for Australia.

HYMNS: 143; 741; 602; 407

Sentence: Will not God grant justice to those who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? Luke 18.7-8

THE COLLECT

Lord, tireless guardian of your people, teach us to rely, day and night, on your care. Drive us to seek your justice and your help, and support our prayer lest we grow weary, for in you alone is our strength. We make our prayer through your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

A reading from the Book of prophet Jeremiah Chapter 31.27 – 34

<sup>27</sup> The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of humans and the seed of animals. <sup>28</sup> And just as I have watched over them to pluck up and break down, to overthrow, destroy, and bring evil, so I will watch over them to build and to plant, says the Lord .

<sup>29</sup> In those days they shall no longer say: ‘The parents have eaten sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge.’ <sup>30</sup> But all shall die for their own sins; the teeth of everyone who eats sour grapes shall be set on edge. <sup>31</sup> The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. <sup>32</sup> It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the Lord. <sup>33</sup> But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. <sup>34</sup> No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, ‘Know the Lord’, for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

Silence may follow each reading.

Responsorial Psalm 119.97 – 104

Response: Lord, I love your commands

<sup>97</sup> Lord, how I love your law: it is my meditation all the day long. <sup>98</sup> Your commandments have made me wiser than my enemies: for they remain with me for ever. <sup>99</sup> I have more understanding than all my teachers: for I study your commands. <sup>100</sup> I am wiser than the aged: because I have kept your precepts. Lord, I love your commands

101 I have held back my feet from every evil path: that I might keep your word;
102 I have not turned aside from your judgements: for you yourself are my teacher.
103 How sweet are your words to my tongue: sweeter than honey to my mouth.
104 Through your precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate all lying ways.
Lord, I love your commands

Silence may follow each reading.

SECOND READING

A reading from Paul's Second Letter to Timothy Chapter 3.10 to Chapter 4.5

3 <sup>10</sup> Now you have observed my teaching, my conduct, my aim in life, my faith, my patience, my love, my steadfastness, <sup>11</sup> my persecutions, and my suffering the things that happened to me in Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. What persecutions I endured! Yet the Lord rescued me from all of them. <sup>12</sup> Indeed, all who want to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted. <sup>13</sup> But wicked people and impostors will go from bad to worse, deceiving others and being deceived. <sup>14</sup> But as for you, continue in what you have learned and firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it, <sup>15</sup> and how from childhood you have known the sacred writings that are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. <sup>16</sup> All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, <sup>17</sup> so that everyone who belongs to God may be proficient, equipped for every good work. 4 <sup>1</sup> In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I solemnly urge you: <sup>2</sup> proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favourable or unfavourable; convince, rebuke, and encourage, with the utmost patience in teaching. <sup>3</sup> For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound doctrine, but having itching ears, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires, <sup>4</sup> and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths. <sup>5</sup> As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

Silence may follow each reading.

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, Alleluia! Alleluia, Alleluia!

The word of God is living and active; it probes the thoughts and motives of our heart. Alleluia! Alleluia!

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus told them a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart. <sup>2</sup> He said, ‘In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for people. <sup>3</sup> In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, “Grant me justice against my opponent.” <sup>4</sup> For a while he refused; but later he said to himself, “Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone, <sup>5</sup> yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming.”’ <sup>6</sup> And the Lord said, ‘Listen to what the unjust judge says. <sup>7</sup> And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? <sup>8</sup> I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?’ <sup>9</sup> He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: <sup>10</sup> ‘Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax-collector. <sup>11</sup> The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, “God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax-collector. <sup>12</sup> I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.” <sup>13</sup> But the tax-collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, “God, be merciful to me, a sinner!” <sup>14</sup> I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted.’

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Silence may follow each reading.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Let us pray for the world and the church.

Loving God, you teach us to bring our needs to you in prayers and you come to our help when we cry to you: hear our prayers for the world and for your church.

We pray for the peoples of every land: especially for the peoples of Ukraine, Russia, Syria, Palestine, Israel, Afghanistan, Yemen, Iran, Somalia, Sri Lanka and Myanmar; for all who face starvation or disease, for those in the midst of natural disasters suffering its effects and the need for recovery; for the homeless and the destitute; for all in position of authority and for those who work for justice and peace. When we pray to you for peace, but fail to see our own aggression, when we pray for justice, but we do not acknowledge our own greed, God be merciful to us, and, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

We pray for this country and for all who have made Australia their home: for those who suffer the effects of the floods and the uncertainty for the future; for the indigenous peoples of this land; for all who endure persecution or discrimination. When we seek reconciliation, but we do not apologise for the past wrongs, when we ask others for forgiveness, but we are unforgiving and judgmental, God be merciful to us, and, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

We pray for the worldwide church, its clergy and people: for Philip, our Archbishop, Clarence, our Bishop; for all who worship or minister in this parish; for communities of faith in places of danger and isolation; for evangelist and preachers and for all who proclaim your good news. When we come to you for blessing, but we disregard your law, when we speak to others of your love, but our lives are cold and mean, God be merciful to us, and, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

We pray for those with whom we share our lives and for all whom we love: for those without work and those overburdened with responsibility and the devastation of the floods in Mitchell Shire and Victoria; for all who work to make this community a more welcoming and caring place. When we condemn the faults of others, but we cannot see our own, when we accept the love of others, but we are ungenerous and unkind, God be merciful to us, and, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

We pray for all in trouble or distress, all in need of your comforting presence: for the infirm and those who can no longer care for themselves; for those who are in grief or in anguish, for the sick and for the dying. We pray especially for Elaine Haddock, Belinda Shannon, Jim Chatz, Barry Watts, Ray Daly, Val Watts, Gwen Bushell, Debbie Chilcott, Beryl Kirby, Geoff Kirby, Fiona Mctier, Robert Whalley, Candice Pearce, Russel Taylor, Kate Jessup, David Valentine, Margaret Taylor, Jeanne Jones, Rebecca Wallis, Colin Jamieson, Alan Rose, Peg Raeburn, Bishop John Parkes, Glenda McDonald, Peggy Boyd, Stan and Edie Simpson, Bruce Nicholls, Julian Pepper, Rae Sendall and Vince Fazio ... [parishioners are invited to add names of those they hold in prayer]. When we cry to you for help, but we turn away from those in need, when we can meet the needs of others, but we deny our neediness, (pause) God be merciful to us, and, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

We give you thanks and praise for your faithful people of every age: we remember those from whom we learnt the faith, those who have encouraged us and all who have drawn us closer to you. We remember in this week the recently departed Nelly Needham, Trish Taylor and the faithful departed of this parish: James Humphries (16th); Percival Bradshaw, Dorothy Loft (17th); Donald Roberts (18th); Robert Hannam (19th); Edward Howes, Evelyn Williams (20th); Harold Walton, Joan Collet (21st); Clifford Adamson, David Hunter, Barry Clifton (22nd). Rest eternal grant to them O Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon them. Teach us to follow you in humility and obedience. When we fail, do not remember our sins, but bring us, with all your saints, into the joy of your eternal presence. Ever- generous God, be merciful to us, and, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

In a time of silence let us pray for ourselves and those on our hearts and minds this day... (pause) God be merciful to us, and, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Almighty God, you have promised to hear our prayers. Grant that what we have asked in faith we may by your grace receive, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

It is the custom of our church to invite all baptised communicant members of other Christian traditions to share in the Lord's Supper with us. If you do not wish to share in the Lord's Supper, you are welcome to receive a blessing. Parents of children should encourage them to fold their arms, if they do not want them to receive the sacrament.
