HYMNS: 133; 155; 161; 147

Sentence: The Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many. Mark 10.45

THE COLLECT

God of unchangeable power, when the heaven and earth were made, the morning stars sang together and the host of heaven shouted for joy: open our eyes to the wonders of creation and teach us to use all things for good, to the honour of your glorious name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

A reading from the Book of Job Chapter 38.1 – 7.

¹ Then the Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind: ² ‘Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge? ³ Gird up your loins like a man, I will question you, and you shall declare to me. ⁴ ‘Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell me, if you have understanding. ⁵ Who determined its measurements—surely you know! Or who stretched the line upon it? ⁶ On what were its bases sunk, or who laid its cornerstone ⁷ when the morning stars sang together and all the heavenly beings shouted for joy?

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Silence may follow each reading.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM 104.1 – 10, 26

Said: Bless the Lord, O my soul and all that is within me.

¹ Bless the Lord, O my soul: O Lord my God, how great you are! ² Clothed with majesty and honour: wrapped in light as in a garment. ³ You have stretched out the heavens like a tent-cloth: and laid the beams of your dwelling upon their waters; ⁴ You make the clouds your chariot: and ride upon the wings of the wind; ⁵ You make the winds your messengers: and flames of fire your ministers; ⁶ You have set the earth on its foundations: so that it shall never be moved. Bless the Lord, O my soul and all that is within me.

⁷ The deep covered it as with a mantle: the waters stood above the hills. ⁸ At your rebuke they fled: at the voice of your thunder they hurried away; ⁹ They went up to the mountains, they went down by the valleys: to the place which you had appointed for them. ¹⁰ You fixed a limit which they may not pass: they shall not return again to cover the earth. ²⁶ Lord, how various are your works: in wisdom you have made them all, and the earth is full of your creatures. Bless the Lord, O my soul and all that is within me.

Silence may follow each reading.

SECOND READING

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews Chapter 5.1 – 10

¹ Every high priest chosen from among mortals is put in charge of things pertaining to God on their behalf, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. ² He is able to deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is subject to weakness; ³ and because of this he must offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people. ⁴ And one does not presume to take this honour, but takes it only when called by God, just as Aaron was. ⁵ So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, ‘You are my Son, today I have begotten you’; ⁶ as he says also in another place, ‘You are a priest for ever, according to the order of Melchizedek.’ ⁷ In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. ⁸ Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; ⁹ and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, ¹⁰ having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Silence may follow each reading.

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, Alleluia! Alleluia, Alleluia!

The Son of Man came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for all.

Alleluia! Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark chapter 10.35 – 45

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

³⁵ James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to him and said to him, ‘Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you.’ ³⁶ And he said to them, ‘What is it you want me to do for you?’ ³⁷ And they said to him, ‘Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory.’ ³⁸ But Jesus said to them, ‘You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?’ ³⁹ They replied, ‘We are able.’ Then Jesus said to them, ‘The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; ⁴⁰ but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared.’⁴¹ When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John.⁴² So Jesus called them and said to them, ‘You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them.⁴³ But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant,⁴⁴ and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all.⁴⁵ For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.’

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Silence may follow each reading.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Let us pray:

O God, you set the earth on its foundations and the heavens reflect your glory, yet you come among us in the form of a servant: hear the prayers we offer.

We give you thanks that you come to us in weakness, borne into an oppressed race. We pray for the peoples of the world: for those crushed by daily hardship or broken by political oppression, for those suffering from famine and disease. We pray for the COVID pandemic in the world, the vaccination rollout in the various countries; for our state of Victoria, New South Wales and the rest of Australia, for all suffering the uncertainty and effects of the of the virus. We pray for all who spend their lives in working for a more just world. Help us to set aside arrogance and self-importance, and to those who govern give wisdom, integrity and determination to seek the common good. God of grace, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

We give you thanks that you come to us in obedience and humility. We pray for your holy, catholic church: for church agencies that care for the hungry and homeless, for agencies that provide care for children and the aged. We pray for all who answer your call and spend their lives in your service. We pray for leaders of churches, for Phillip, our Archbishop and Clarence, our Bishop, for all who ministers to your people. Help us to set aside trappings of pomp and power, and enable us to fulfil our mission to bring your good news to the world. God of grace, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

We give you thanks that you come to us teaching us ways of forgiveness and love. We pray for the communities in which we live: for our families and all whom we love, for those with whom we share our daily lives, for the people of this town. We pray for all who spend their lives in making the community a happier, safer place. Help us to set aside selfishness and greed and all that destroys community; stir in us the need for each other and a commitment to the welfare of all. God of grace, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

We give you thanks that you come to us experiencing all the pains of human life. We pray for all in need of your tender consolation: for those stripped of dignity and self-respect; for those whose labour is exploited or taken for granted; for those sick in heart or mind or body. We pray especially for: We pray especially for Elaine Haddock, Belinda Shannon, Sharron de Battista, Jim Chatz, Barry Watts, Ray Daly, Val Watts, Gwen Bushell, Debbie Chilcott, Beryl Kirby, Tom Scrivens, Geoff Kirby, Fiona Mctier, Robert Whalley, Candice Pearce, Gail Piechowiak, Russel Taylor, Shirley Wigg, Kate Jessup and Vince Fazio ... [parishioners are invited to add names of those they hold in prayer.] We pray for all who spend their lives in bringing healing and comfort to others. Help us to set aside self-interest and pride and to give and receive care that is needed. God of grace, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

We give you thanks that you gave your life, that we might inherit eternal life. We remember all who have died in the faith, and all whom we have loved. Percival Bradshaw, Dorothy Loft (17th); Donald Roberts (18th); Robert Hannam (19th); Edward Howes, Evelyn Williams (20th) Harold Walton, Joan Collet (21st); Clifford Adamson, David Hunter, Barry Clifton (22nd); John Fyfe, Lorraine Drew (23rd). Rest eternal grant to them O Lord and let light perpetual shine upon them. Help us to set aside all that prevents us from serving you, that we, with all your saints, may come to the place you prepare for us, and eat with you at your heavenly banquet. God of grace, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

We pray for ourselves and those on our hearts and minds this day... God of grace, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Almighty God, you have promised to hear our prayers.

Grant that what we have asked in faith we may by your grace receive, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

It is the custom of our church to invite all baptised communicant members of other Christian traditions to share the bread of the Lord's Supper with us. Non-Communicants are invited to come and receive a blessing.

Big thank you for your emergency food which has been coming to Andre or Sherine each week. This is greatly appreciated. Sherine is coming in every Tuesday to help.

In preparation for Christmas, we are asking you early to give people time. All gifts must be new. We have single people and different age groups. We have single mothers and single fathers. We propose the following possibilities:

1. You might like to take a family and buy gifts for all the members of that family. We will match you with a family of the size you choose and also give you a list of the things the children have chosen on their wish list. They remain unanimous but ages and choices will be provided.
2. You might like to donate specific gift vouchers as we give these to our teenagers.
3. You might like to buy individual gifts.

We will make up Christmas food hampers and will soon be asking for Christmas foods when it becomes available in shops. Contact me or chat with Sherine if you have any queries.

God bless,
