Sixth Sunday after Pentecost
17th July 2022

*As we gather in prayer today, we acknowledge the Taungurung people who are the traditional custodians of this land. We pay respects to the past and present Elders of the Kulin nation and extend that respect to any Aboriginals present. Welcome to all, especially, to newcomers and visitors. The service for Holy Eucharist starts on page 119 and that of Morning Prayer on page 19 of A Prayer Book for Australia.

HYMNS: 111; 222; 658; 242

Sentence:

In returning and rest you shall be saved; in quietness and trust shall be your strength. Isaiah 30.16

THE COLLECT

Eternal God, you draw near to us in Christ and make yourself our guest: amid the cares of our daily lives, make us attentive to your voice and alert to your presence, that we may treasure your word above all else. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of prophet Amos chapter 8.1 – 12

¹ This is what the Lord God showed me—a basket of summer fruit. ² He said, Amos, what do you see?’ And I said, ‘A basket of summer fruit.’ Then the Lord said to me, ‘The end has come upon my people Israel; I will never again pass them by. ³ The songs of the temple shall become wailings on that day,’ says the Lord God; ‘the dead bodies shall be many, cast out in every place. Be silent!’

⁴ Hear this, you that trample on the needy, and bring to ruin the poor of the land, ⁵ saying, ‘When will the new moon be over so that we may sell grain; and the sabbath, so that we may offer wheat for sale? We will make the ephah small and the shekel great, and practise deceit with false balances, ⁶ buying the poor for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals, and selling the sweepings of the wheat.’ ⁷ The Lord has sworn by the pride of Jacob: Surely I will never forget any of their deeds. ⁸ Shall not the land tremble on this account, and everyone mourn who lives in it, and all of it rise like the Nile, and be tossed about and sink again, like the Nile of Egypt? ⁹ On that day, says the Lord God, I will make the sun go down at noon, and darken the earth in broad daylight. ¹⁰ I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; I will bring sackcloth on all loins, and baldness on every head; I will make it like the mourning for an only son, and the end of it like a bitter day. ¹¹ The time is surely coming, says the Lord God, when I will send a famine on the land; not a famine of bread, or a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the Lord. ¹² They shall wander from sea to sea, and from north to east; they shall run to and fro, seeking the word of the Lord, but they shall not find it.

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

Silence may follow each reading.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: 52

Said Response: I trust in your goodness, O Lord.

¹ Why, you that are powerful, do you boast all the day long: of mischief done to those that are faithful to God? ² You contrive destroying slanders: your tongue is like a sharpened razor, it cuts deceitfully. ³ You have loved evil, and not good:

to tell lies, rather than to speak the truth. ⁴ You love all words that may do hurt: and every deceit of the tongue. I trust in your goodness, O Lord.

⁵ But God will destroy you utterly: he will snatch you away and pluck you out of your dwelling, he will uproot you from the land of the living. ⁶ The righteous shall see it, and fear: they shall laugh you to scorn, and say, ⁷ ‘Here is one who did not take God for strength: but trusted to the abundance of riches, and found strength in slander.’ ⁸ As for me, I am like a green olive tree in the house of God: I will trust in the goodness of God for ever and ever. ⁹ I will always give you thanks, for this was your doing: I will glorify your name before the faithful, for it is good to praise you. I trust in your goodness, O Lord.

Silence may follow each reading.

SECOND READING

A reading from Paul’s letter to the Colossians Chapter 1.15 – 29

¹⁵ He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; ¹⁶ for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers—all things have been created through him and for him. ¹⁷ He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. ¹⁸ He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. ¹⁹ For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, ²⁰ and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross. ²¹ And you who were once estranged and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, ²² he has now reconciled in his fleshly body through death, so as to present you holy and blameless and irreproachable before him — ²³ provided that you continue securely established and steadfast in the faith, without shifting from the hope promised by the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven. I, Paul, became a servant of this gospel. ²⁴ I am now rejoicing in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am completing what is lacking in Christ’s afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church. ²⁵ I became its servant according to God’s commission that was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known, ²⁶ the mystery that has been hidden throughout the ages and generations but has now been revealed to his saints. ²⁷ To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. ²⁸ It is he whom we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone in all wisdom, so that we may present everyone mature in Christ. ²⁹ For this I toil and struggle with all the energy that he powerfully inspires within me.

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

Silence may follow each reading.

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia, Alleluia!

Happy are they who have kept the word with a generous heart and yield a harvest through perseverance. Alleluia! Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke Chapter 10.38 – 42

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

³⁸ Now as they went on their way, he entered a certain village, where a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home. ³⁹ She had a sister named Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to what he was saying. ⁴⁰ But Martha was distracted by her many tasks; so she came to him and asked, 'Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her then to help me.' ⁴¹ But the Lord answered her, 'Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things; ⁴² there is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her.'

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Silence may follow each reading.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Let us pray for church and the world.

Loving God, in every generation you have spoken through your prophets, and you call us today to be a people of justice.

We pray for the world, for the people of Ukraine, Russia, Syria, Palestine, Israel, Afghanistan, Yemen, Somalia, Sri Lanka and Myanmar; that peace and justice may increase; for victims of violence and for those who starve while food is stockpiled; for those cheated of a just wage and those exploited for others' gain; for Anthony Albanese our Prime Minister, and Daniel Andrews, our Premier, for leaders of nations, and for all who work for the resolution of conflict. We thank you for all who bring to others your justice and peace. God of grace, hear our prayer.

In every generation you have spoken through your prophets, and you call us today to be a people of faith. We pray for your church, for Philip, our Archbishop and Clarence, our Bishop, your ministers, that it may be a community renewed by your grace, for the church in places of danger and persecution; for those who disturb us with your challenging message; for all who thirst to hear your word. We thank you for all who bring your good news to others. God of grace, hear our prayer.

In every generation you have spoken through your prophets, and you call us today to be a people of hospitality and love. We pray for the communities in which we live, that they may be places of welcome and acceptance; for our families and friends, for those with whom we work and learn; for this town and all who work and live here. We thank you for all who bring to others your love and reconciliation. God of grace, hear our prayer.

In every generation you have spoken through your prophets, and you call us today to be a people of compassion. We pray for those in need, that they may find comfort and relief; for those without work and those without rest; for the lonely and those who mourn; for the sick and those who will die this day. We pray especially for Elaine Haddock, Belinda Shannon, Jim Chatz, Barry Watts, Ray Daly, Val Watts, Gwen Bushell, Debbie Chilcott, Beryl Kirby, Tom Scrivens, Geoff Kirby, Fiona Mctier, Robert Whalley, Candice Pearce, Russel Taylor, Kate Jessup, David Valentine, Margaret Taylor, Jeanne Jones, Anna Wiecek, Laurie Taylor, Rebecca Wallis, Colin Jamieson, Alan Rose, Peg Raeburn, Bishop John Parkes and Vince Fazio ... [parishioners are invited to add names of those they hold in prayer]. We thank you for all who bring to others your compassion and care. God of grace, hear our prayer.

Loving God, in every generation people of faith have heard your voice and responded to your call. We give you thanks for all your faithful servants: for the virgin Mary, for Mary and Martha, for Mary Magdalene. We remember the faithful departed of this parish: Cassie Scanlan, Pauline Javor (17th); Cecil Lane (18th); Jock Duncanson, Richard Sherwood, Angelina Gilhome (19th); Gladys Skevington-Habgood, Margaret Insley, Elinor Bowen, Joyce Brown, Norma (Judy) Hedley (20th); Samuel Fullard, Sue Charles-Jones, Elizabeth Parry, Doris Allen (21st); Leslie Neill, Alan Finlay, Robert Masters, Jessie Grace, Kerren Cookson, Maliki Kioko, Ronald Eichstädt (22nd); Charles Russell, Byron Saunders, Keith Torrens (23rd). Rest eternal grant to them O Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon them. May we, following their example, welcome you into our hearts and homes, sit in your presence and seek to understand your word, that we may come to share with all your saints in the joy of eternal life. God of grace, hear our prayer.

In a time of silence let us pray for ourselves and those on our hearts and minds this day... (pause) God of grace, hear our prayer.

Almighty God, you have promised to hear our prayers. Grant that what we have asked in faith we may by your grace receive, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for our Anglican community

Lord God, whose word brings hope and whose power brings peace, we pray for the Anglican Church of Australia, all its bishops, clergy and people. We pray for unity amidst diversity and for the transformation of hearts and minds, so that we can reflect your image and glory in a broken world. We pray that you may heal our divisions and for peace at a time of conflict and misunderstanding. Help us to be the Body of Christ, disciples who will be true to your gospel of reconciliation, forgiveness and love and that we may seek to hold on to the things that unite us and accept one another in the things that divide us - for our unity is in you, our Creator, Redeemer and Sustainer. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the first time in three years, the Diocese of Wangaratta and Anglicare Victoria will be holding the Winter Appeal. This, of course, is due to dealing with the pandemic for the last two years. This year the Winter Appeal will take place on Sunday 31st July. Donations of cans or packets of soup will be collected by our parish in the weeks leading up to (and including) Sunday July 31st, to enable us to take part in this wider appeal for the Diocese. (If you prefer to give a donation, this can be made to the Diocesan Office). All donations will be gratefully received, and donations can be left at each of our church buildings.

31st July 2022 combined Service at Christ Church Kilmore at 10.00am we will celebrate the Winter Appeal as part of our Bring and Share Soup Lunch. Only one service in the Parish.

Diocesan Lay Ministry Certificate Course:

I will be offering the Pastoral Care Component of this course next Saturday the 23rd July from 10.00am to 3.00pm at the Gavan Hall, Broadford to Lay Ministers of the Diocese who could not attend the course in Wangaratta. If Any of you wish to attend the Course feel free to join. There will be no cost involved but you'll have to provide your own lunch. Please bring a Bible along, Prayer Books will be provided. Let me know of your intention. Blessings Andre
