3rd April 2022

Fifth Sunday in Lent

As we gather in prayer today, we acknowledge the Taungurung people who are the traditional custodians of this land. We pay respects to the past and present Elders of the Kulin nation and extend that respect to any Aboriginals present. Welcome to all, especially, to newcomers and visitors. Our service starts on page 119 of A Prayer Book for Australia.

HYMNS: 351; 350; 653; 155

Sentence: Those who go out weeping, bearing the seed for sowing, shall come home with shouts of joy, carrying their sheaves. Psalm 126.6

There follows the prayer of approach

FIRST READING

A reading from the Book of the prophet Isaiah Chapter 43.16 – 21

¹⁶ Thus says the Lord, who makes a way in the sea, a path in the mighty waters,
¹⁷ who brings out chariot and horse, army and warrior; they lie down, they cannot rise, they are extinguished, quenched like a wick: ¹⁸ Do not remember the former things, or consider the things of old. ¹⁹ I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert. ²⁰ The wild animals will honour me, the jackals and the ostriches; for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people,
²¹ the people whom I formed for myself so that they might declare my praise.

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Silence may follow each reading

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: 126

Said: God has done great things for us

¹ When the Lord turned again the fortunes of Zion: then were we like those restored to life. ² Then was our mouth filled with laughter: and our tongue with singing. ³ Then said they among the heathen: ‘The Lord has done great things for them.’
God has done great things for us

⁴ Truly the Lord has done great things for us: and therefore we rejoiced. ⁵ Turn again our fortunes, O Lord: as the streams return to the dry south. ⁶ Those who sow in tears: shall reap with songs of joy. ⁷ They that go out weeping, bearing the seed: shall come again in gladness, bringing their sheaves with them. God has done great things for us

Silence may follow each reading.

SECOND READING

A reading from Paul’s Letter to the Philippians Chapter 3.3 – 14

³ For it is we who are the circumcision, who worship in the Spirit of God and boast in Christ Jesus and have no confidence in the flesh—⁴ even though I, too, have reason for confidence in the flesh. If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more:⁵ circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; ⁶ as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless. ⁷ Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. ⁸ More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ ⁹ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith. ¹⁰ I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death, ¹¹ if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead. ¹² Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. ¹³ Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, ¹⁴ I press on towards the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Silence may follow each reading.

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory!

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory!

With all your heart turn to me, for I am tender and compassionate.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John Chapter 12.1 – 8

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

¹ Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. ² There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him. ³ Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus' feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. ⁴ But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said, ⁵ 'Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?' ⁶ (He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.) ⁷ Jesus said, 'Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. ⁸ You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me.'

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Silence may follow each reading.

THE COLLECT

O God, the Redeemer of all who trust in you: heed the cry of your people, and deliver us from the bondage of sin, that we may serve you in perfect freedom and rejoice in your unfailing love; through Jesus Christ our Saviour, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Let us pray: Jesus, friend and intercessor, you were anointed as the Saviour of the world; we pray for the peoples of all nations: for those who suffer hardships of war, especially Ukraine, Russia; Myanmar, Syria, Afghanistan, Somalia and Yemen; those who suffer famine and disease; for all who struggle with the uncertainty and fear of the current Covid pandemic, for Queensland and New South Wales victims of floods; for leaders of nations, especially Scott Morrison our Prime Minister and Daniel Andrews our Premier, and all who exercise authority; for all who work to create a more just world. Break open our hearts, that we too may pour out our lives for you and bring your message of justice to your people. Jesus, in your mercy, receive the prayers we offer.

You were anointed as the chosen one of Israel; we pray for your church: for all who suffer persecution for their faith; for missionaries, pastors and evangelists; for Philip, our Archbishop and Clarence, our Bishop; for all who bring your good news to others. Break open our hearts, that we too may pour out our lives for you and bring your gospel of salvation to your people. Jesus, in your mercy, receive the prayers we offer.

You were anointed as God's beloved son; we pray for those we hold dear and all with whom our lives are bound: our family and friends; for those whom we work; for the lonely and the alienated members of our community; for all who make our community a more compassionate place, especially those in the work of Love in Action. Break open our hearts, that we too may pour out our lives for you and bring your message of love to your people. Jesus, in your mercy, receive the prayers we offer.

You were anointed to bring good news to the captive and healing to the sick; we pray for all in trouble or distress: for all who are weighed down by pain or grief; for all who are sick or facing death; for all who bring release and healing to your people. We pray especially for Elaine Haddock, Belinda Shannon, Sharron de Battista, Jim Chatz, Barry Watts, Ray Daly, Val Watts, Gwen Bushell, Debbie Chilcott, Beryl Kirby, Tom Scrivens, Geoff Kirby, Fiona Mctier, Robert Whalley, Candice Pearce, Russel Taylor, Kate Jessup, David Valentine, Margaret Taylor, Jeanne Jones, Anna Wiecek, Laurie Taylor, Rebecca Wallis, and Vince Fazio ... [parishioners are invited to add names of those they hold in prayer]. We give thanks for where healing blessings have been received. Break open our hearts, that we too may pour out our lives for you and bring your words of comfort to your people. Jesus, in your mercy, receive the prayers we offer.

You were anointed for death, but dying and rising you bring new life to others; we give you thanks for all who have died in faith: for Mary of Bethany and your friends of every age; for all who have offered to you the fragrance of their life and love. We remember the recently departed Florence Hammond and those whose anniversary of death we celebrate this week: Johannes De Niet (3rd); Ian Kelm, John Butler (4th); Stan Cartwright, James Glare (5th); Frederick Schumann (6th)Gordon ‘Jim’ Kirk (8th); Alick Horwood, Alan Walker (9th). Rest eternal grant to them O Lord and let light perpetual shine upon them. May we, like them, break open our lives, that, offering to you all we hold precious, we may find our eternal treasure in you. Jesus, friend and intercessor, in your mercy, receive the prayers we offer.

We pray for ourselves and those on our hearts and minds this day... (pause) Jesus, friend and intercessor, in your mercy, receive the prayers we offer.

Almighty God, you have promised to hear our prayers. Grant that what we have asked in faith we may by your grace receive, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

It is the custom of our church to invite all baptised communicant members of other Christian traditions to share in the Lord’s Supper with us. If you do not wish to share in the Lord’s Supper, you are welcome to receive a blessing. Parents of children should encourage them to fold their arms, if they do not want them to receive the sacrament.
