12th June 2022

Trinity Sunday

*As we gather in prayer today, we acknowledge the Taungurung people who are the traditional custodians of this land. We pay respects to the past and present Elders of the Kulin nation and extend that respect to any Aboriginals present. Welcome to all, especially, to newcomers and visitors. The service for Holy Eucharist starts on page 119 and that of Morning Prayer on page 19 of A Prayer Book for Australia.

HYMNS: 132; 59; 137; 161

Sentence: Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice? 'The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago.'
Proverbs 8.1, 22

THE COLLECT

Father, we praise you, that through your Word and Holy Spirit you created all things; you reveal your salvation in all the world through Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh; through your Holy Spirit you give us a share in your life and love: fill us with the vision of your glory, that we may always serve and praise you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of Proverbs chapter 8.1 – 4, 22 – 31

¹ Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice? ² On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; ³ beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out: ⁴ ‘To you, O people, I call, and my cry is to all that live. ²² The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago. ²³ Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. ²⁴ When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. ²⁵ Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth— ²⁶ when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world’s first bits of soil. ²⁷ When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, ²⁸ when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, ²⁹ when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, ³⁰ then I was beside him, like a master worker; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, ³¹ rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race.

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

Silence may follow each reading.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: 8

Said Response: O Lord, our God, how glorious is your name!

¹ O Lord our Governor: how glorious is your name in all the earth! ² Your majesty above the heavens is yet recounted: by the mouths of babes and sucklings. ³ You have founded a strong defence against your adversaries: to quell the enemy and the avenger. ⁴ When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers: the moon and the stars which you have set in order, ⁵ What are we, that you should be mindful of us: what are we, that you should care for us? O Lord, our God, how glorious is your name!

⁶ Yet you have made us little less than gods: and have crowned us with glory and honour. ⁷ You have given us dominion over your handiwork: and have put all things in subjection beneath our feet, ⁸ All sheep and oxen: and all the creatures of the field, ⁹ The birds of the air and the fish of the sea: and everything that moves in the pathways of the great waters. ¹⁰ O Lord our Governor: how glorious is your name in all the earth! O Lord, our God, how glorious is your name!

Silence may follow each reading.

SECOND READING

A reading from Paul's letter to the Romans chapter 5.1 – 5

¹ Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, ² through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. ³ And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, ⁴ and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, ⁵ and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

Silence may follow each reading.

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia, Alleluia!

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit: to God who is, who was, and who is to come. Alleluia! Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John Chapter 16.12 – 15

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

¹² 'I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. ¹³ When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. ¹⁴ He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. ¹⁵ All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Silence may follow each reading.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Let us pray for church and the world.

Praise to you, O God, Creator, Word and Spirit, for your glory is beyond our knowing, yet you take delight in the human race: hear the prayers we bring for your people.

Creator God, you formed the waters and the dry land and your fingers set the stars and the moon in the heavens: hear our prayers for the earth and its creatures. We pray for your people whose lands and livelihoods are destroyed; for those who live in places of war, oppression or deprivation, for the people of Ukraine, Russia, Syria, Palestine, Israel, Afghanistan, Yemen, Somalia, Sri Lanka and Myanmar. Unite your people in a community of justice, that we may live together in peace and care responsibly for the world you have entrusted to us. God of glory, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Wisdom and Word of God, created by God at the beginning of time, you chose to dwell with the children of humanity: hear our prayers for your worldwide church. We pray for the church in places where it is persecuted or ignored; for church leaders, especially for Philip our Archbishop; for Clarence, our bishop and all who minister or serve in your name. Guard and strengthen your servant, Elizabeth the Queen, that she may put her trust in you and seek your honour and glory. Unite your people in a community of faith, that we may grow in the understanding of your word and proclaim your gospel in all the world. God of glory, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Spirit of God, you hovered over the waters of creation, and you are with us today, bringing love and peace: hear our prayers for those whose lives we share. We pray for those in society who are disadvantaged or neglected; for our families and our friends, for each other and for ourselves. Unite your people in a community of love, that we may support the weak, care for the vulnerable and welcome the outsiders in our midst. God of glory, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Three-in-one God, you give life to your people, comforting us in our sorrows and sustaining us in our needs: hear our prayers for all who suffer. We pray for the grief-stricken, the broken-hearted and all in despair; for those who are overworked and for those with no work; for the sick and for all who are close to death. We pray especially for Elaine Haddock, Belinda Shannon, Sharron de Battista, Jim Chatz, Barry Watts, Ray Daly, Val Watts, Gwen Bushell, Debbie Chilcott, Beryl Kirby, Tom Scrivens, Geoff Kirby, Fiona Mctier, Robert Whalley, Candice Pearce, Russel Taylor, Kate Jessup, David Valentine, Margaret Taylor, Jeanne Jones, Anna Wiecek, Laurie Taylor, Rebecca Wallis, Colin Jamieson, Alan Rose, Peg Raeburn, Bishop

John Parkes and Vince Fazio ... [parishioners are invited to add names of those they hold in prayer]. We give thanks for where healing blessings have been received. Unite your people in a community of compassion, that we may bring consolation to the suffering and uphold one another in times of need. God of glory, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Eternal God, our beginning and our end, you reign in majesty and you crown your people with glory and honour: hear the prayers for your faithful servants. We remember the saints and the martyrs, those of this parish who have gone before us and all whose yearly remembrance occurs at this time. Ivy Chapman, Edward Piva (13th); Lorelei Stewart, John Vinden (14th); Geoffrey Sexton, John Allen, Kenneth Stevens, Trevor Elliot (15th); John Rogers (16th); May Smith (17th); Adam McLeod, Lorna Cockroft (18th). Rest eternal grant to them O Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon them. Unite your people in a community of hope, that at our life's end we may be raised to eternal life, to share with all your saints in glory. God of glory, Creator, Word and Spirit, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

In a time of silence let us pray for ourselves and those on our hearts and minds this day... (pause) God of glory, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Almighty God, you have promised to hear our prayers.

Grant that what we have asked in faith we may by your grace receive, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

It is the custom of our church to invite all baptised communicant members of other Christian traditions to share in the Lord's Supper with us. If you do not wish to share in the Lord's Supper, you are welcome to receive a blessing. Parents of children should encourage them to fold their arms, if they do not want them to receive the sacrament.

Safe Church Online Training.

This training applies to ALL Parish Councillors, Lay Assistants, Servers, and a few other 'groups' (Music director, St Matthew's Village, Aged Care Assistants). If you are involved in one or more of these groups, please can I ask that you check your emails. If you need help completing the online course, please let me know. I will be arranging a Group Training Day for those who are not very confident completing online courses. We have been requested to do this by the Diocese. Thank you.

A Prayer for our Anglican community

Lord God, whose word brings hope and whose power brings peace, we pray for the Anglican Church of Australia, all its bishops, clergy and people. We pray for unity amidst diversity and for the transformation of hearts and minds, so that we can reflect your image and glory in a broken world. We pray that you may heal our divisions and for peace at a time of conflict and misunderstanding. Help us to be the Body of Christ, disciples who will be true to your gospel of reconciliation, forgiveness and love and that we may seek to hold on to the things that unite us and accept one another in the things that divide us - for our unity is in you, our Creator, Redeemer and Sustainer. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Op Shop Volunteer Lunch

Thursday June 16th at 12.30pm at Christ Church. We give thanks to our volunteers for their generous contribution to our Op shop to enable us to continue our mission in our communities.

Lambeth Conference: Around once every 10 years, since 1867, the Archbishops of Canterbury have invited the bishops of the Anglican Communion to gather for prayer, worship, consultation, fellowship and resourcing. The next Lambeth Conference will take place in July and August this year at the University of Kent in Canterbury, under the theme “God’s Church for God’s World: walking, listening and witnessing together”.

A seasonal Prayer Diary has been produced to help people pray for the success of this year's Lambeth Conference. It is part of a Prayer Journey in which people are also being invited to send in prayers, which will be displayed on a prayer wall to encourage those attending the conference. In addition, a special collect has been written to help people to pray for the Lambeth Conference:

*God of Life, in baptism you give us new birth into a living hope, calling us into your marvellous light that we may live as your people;
bless with the Spirit's presence all who will gather for the Lambeth Conference, that their work, prayer and fellowship may bear fruit to your glory, and inspire people everywhere to walk, listen and witness together as disciples of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen*

Parish Publicity: In the last few weeks several articles have been sent from the parish to the Advocate for the winter publication, as well as the Parish website being updated (yes finally) with the last 12 months of photos. It would be great to involve ALL of the parish when it comes to “Parish Publicity”. Because I live in Kilmore and tend to take a lot of photos of what is happening here, the website, Facebook and Advocate tend to be very “Kilmore centric”. This isn’t deliberate or intentional, and not really ideal. If ANYTHING is going on around the parish that might be of interest to others, please be proactive and take photos and send to me (high res or full size if possible) with a few words of what has been happening. Anyone can send to the Advocate, but if you prefer it to come from me, then feel free to write an article to go with your photos. Thank you. Caroline - PPO!
